Pamplin

As it is so near Good Friday, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection, these two verses seem very appropriate "And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary, the mother of James and Salome had brought sweet spices that they might anoint him, and very early in the morning of the first day of the week they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun." Mark 16:1,2. How wonderful today we serve ja risen, living Saviour.

ederate Cavalry Leader Is ject Of UDC Chapter Meeting

...re only three men in ...federate Army without military training who ...p the rank of Lieutenant ...l. One of these was Wade ...n III, subject of the ...meeting of the Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters ...federacy.

...e Schreck, member of ...nterpretative staff of Appomattox National Historical Park, was the speaker Thursday evening, March 19 at the Appomattox County Library.

General Hampton was born in Charleston March 28, 1818. He was brought up in the home of a southern gentleman planter, about five miles from Columbia.

...ck told the members that Hampton first served the Confederacy as an infantry officer. His service as cavalry officer bega nJuly 28, 1862 when he was assigned to the First Brigade of Cavalry of the Army of Northern Virginia. He was wounded in the first battle of Bull Run, and again, just a week later at Seven Pines, then for the third time at Gettysburg July 1-3, 1863.

Douglas Freeman, writing of his life, we find that his leadership was a great help to his people, in agriculture, in war, and in politics. I believe that he could say as he breathed his last, at the age of 84, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course."

He died April 11, 1902, and his last whispered words were a prayer to the Almighty to bless all his people. He was buried in the horseman and the smooth muscles of the athlete. His courage, personal, moral and political, was in keeping with his physique.

After the war Hampton was elected Governor of South Carolina. He was re-elected in 1873 and then elected in the same year to the U. S. Senate, was re-elected in 1884, and defeated in 1890; and appointed U. S. Commissioner of Railroads in 1893-1897.

Schreck said, "In looking over his life, we find that his leadership was a great help to his people, in agriculture, in war, and in politics. I believe that he could say as he breathed his last, at the age of 84, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course."

He died April 11, 1902, and his last whispered words were a prayer to the Almighty to bless all his people. He was buried in Trinity churchyard, Columbia, South Carolina.

Writer With The Right Idea

Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr. concluded her presentation of ideas for a successful Appomattox Beautification program with a poem at the monthly meeting of the Appomattox Garden Club. She said that John Taylor Arms may have had in mind the aspirations of many who engage in civic beautification when he wrote: "So feel beauty, think beauty, Express beauty—That the World may become a better place in which to live."

Model Assembly To Study Va. Jury System

The idea of having a junior jury system for Virginia's juvenile Courts will be considered in Richmond in April by the 19-64 Y.M.C.A. Model General Assembly.

The assembly, just like the state General Assembly, discusses and acts upon bills, but naturally, none of its actions become law.

Under the junior jury idea, panels of youths would be set up to sit through juvenile court cases and to make recommendations to judge as to punishment for the defendants.

Woodmen Circle Will Meet

The Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle Grove 73, Appomattox, Va. will have its regular monthly meeting in the home of the Grove Financial secretary, Mrs. Nannie Mae Smith, Thursday, April 2, 1964 at 17:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present by the Grove president, Mrs. Eva Mayberry.

Second Lt. Gilbert M. Dinkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Dinkins, of Rt. 1, Appomattox, is scheduled to complete an officer orientation course at the Army Air Defense School, Ft. Bliss, Texas, on April 17.

During the course Dinkins is receiving instruction in the duties and responsibilities of a newly commissioned air defense officer. The twenty-three year old officer was graduated from Appomattox High School in 1958 and from VPI in 1963.

Summer Theater Drakes Branch

Southside Virginia may have a summer stock repertory theater this summer. Plans are now being made for the opening of a summer playhouse to be located in Drakes Branch, Va. The company consists at this time of six men and women, all students of either Longwood or Hampden-Sydney.

Vera SCA

The regular monthly meeting of the Vera S.C.A. was held on Friday, February 28, 1964. The meeting was called to order by the president, Ronald Kanipe. Wanda Ferguson read the Bible and Mrs. Gunter led in prayer. After we had the reports from the committees the meeting was turned over to the program chairman. We sang songs. The meeting was then adjourned by the president.

Reporter, Teresa Ragland

Oakville 4-H Club

The Oakville Community 4-H Club met Tuesday, March 3, 1964, at the home of James Burcher. We had only two orders of business. They were first to prepare a menu for our parent-supper on May 1, 1964. Next we elected as club grandfather, Mr. Henry Patteson for this year. The Mr. Moody also told us of the Sign our club had erected on Route 26 at Bent Creek. We also saw a very interesting movie called 'Anatomy of an accident', for our program.

Seven members were present with numerous visitors and president ean Lacey presided.

After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served.
